

Slow Down, Schools Around!

Street design elements that make a safe school street.

Safe Routes to School make daily commutes safer and healthier for children, enabling every child to walk, cycle, or take public transport to school independently. This initiative supports active lifestyles, reduces stress for parents, and makes cities better for everyone.